F#                      B
When I'm home bound
F#                      B
Will I find you around
F#                      B
Waiting for me
C#                      F#
Or will you be gone

B                                      F#
I can see what you've been doing
B                                      F#
I can read it in your eyes
B                                      F#
When I'm out working
C#
You're with some other guy
